MESSAGE

From Chancellor Matthew Goldstein to The City University of New York Community

Every year the CUNY Campaign, conducted in conjunction with the United Way and other community agencies, helps thousands of friends and neighbors across the city access a range of much-needed services. CUNY faculty and staff have always responded enthusiastically to this annual call for help, and I am very grateful for the deep level of caring you express through the campaign.

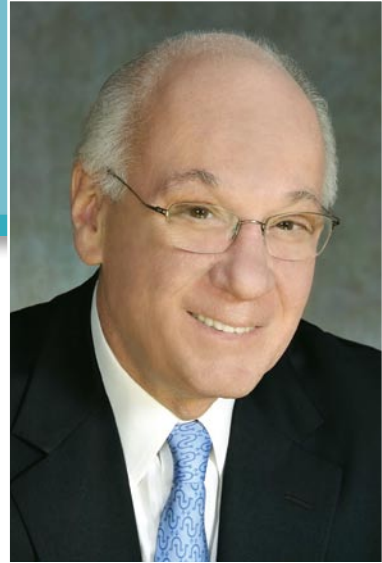

This year, when so many across our city are experiencing the effects of a stubborn national recession, I know that the CUNY community will continue to give generously to over 1,200 agencies that assist our fellow New Yorkers. The 2010-11 CUNY Campaign, "A Community that Shares Shows it Cares," is our opportunity to make a significant difference in the lives of New York's families.

This, our 27th CUNY Campaign, follows years of very successful giving efforts. Last year's campaign raised a remarkable $648,658 from almost 3,000 donors, while giving at the Chancellor's Circle level—gifts of $1,040 or greater—totaled $207,796 with nearly 150 donors.

More than $245,000 of the total raised last year went to college-based agencies, which support valuable programs in our colleges, such as scholarship funds and campus child development centers. The rest went to local and community groups, including the United Way of New York City.

Donations by the CUNY community improve the health, education, and well-being of New Yorkers across the five boroughs. Through your generosity, families and individuals will continue to have programs and services to turn to throughout the year.

Thank you in advance for your support of the 2010-11 CUNY Campaign.
