The Verrazano School is a selective honors program that seeks to provide motivated and talented students with the highest-quality undergraduate experience possible at the College of Staten Island. The program does this through an integrated program of courses and learning communities as well as constructive contact with full-time faculty and personalized academic advisement. In addition, career preparation and academic, social, and cultural learning opportunities, inside and outside the classroom, offered through The Verrazano School, help contribute to a positive, memorable, and valuable college experience. We honor the graduates of The Verrazano School and their many accomplishments, and we wish them much success in their future endeavors.
