 11am-1pm (1L-103)
 Thurs Nov 8, 2018
 2:30pm-4:30pm
 (SG-102, St. George campus)
 China, 2010
 Director: Lixin Fan

Working over several years in classic verité style, filmmaker Lixin Fan chronicles the mass exodus of 130 million Chinese migrant workers as they trek from the city to their home villages for the New Year's holiday. LAST TRAIN HOME's intimate observation of one fractured family sheds light on the human cost of China's ascendance as an economic superpower.

The Children's War

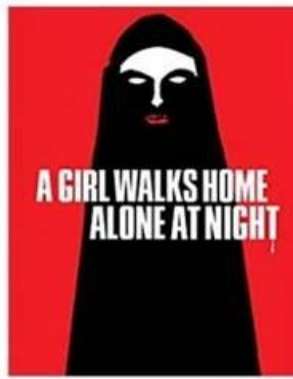

(64 mins)
 Tues Nov 6, 2018
 11am-1pm
 2:30pm-4:00pm
 Uganda, 2010
 Director: Andrew Krakower

This documentary is about Northern Uganda's Lord's Resistance Army and the 24-year long rebellion led by cult rebel leader, Joseph Kony. Hear the stories of the children who live in constant fear of kidnap, forced slavery and decimation of family. Listen to the children who escaped and survived in spite of their capture.

A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night

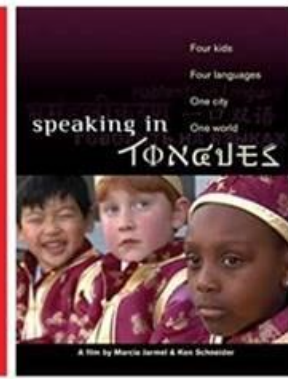

(100 mins)
 Wed Nov 7, 2018
 11am - 1pm
 Iran, 2014
 Director: Ana Lily Amirpour

Strange things are afoot in Bad City. The Iranian ghost town, home to prostitutes, junkies, pimps, and other sordid souls, is a place that reeks of death and hopelessness, where a lonely vampire is stalking the towns' most unsavory inhabitants. But when boy meets girl, an unusual love story begins to blossom...blood red.

Speaking in Tongues

(56 mins)
 Thurs Nov 8, 2018
 11am-12pm
 2:30pm-3:30pm
 United States, 2009
 Directors: Marcia Jarmel and Ken Schneider

Durrell's first day of school is just like any US student's -except that his teacher speaks only Chinese! This charming documentary follows 4 diverse students as they experience the delights and challenges of becoming bilingual and biliterate in public school language immersion programs.
