No Staten Island Rail Service at Ferry Terminal

Beginning at 9:00 p.m. Friday March 22 through 5:00 a.m. Monday, March 25, there will be no Staten Island Railroad (SIR) service into or out of the St. George Ferry Terminal. This shut down of rail service is required to permit the removal of the construction shielding that was installed above the station platforms to protect SIR riders, employees and equipment during the renovation of the ferry terminal ramps above. To accommodate travelers, shuttle buses will be provided continuously between the SIR Tompkinsville Station and the St. George Ferry Terminal throughout the weekend. Passengers will be picked-up and dropped-off in St. George at Bus Station North. SIR staff will be on hand to direct passengers to this location.

Friday, March 23 - 9:00 p.m.
through 5:00 a.m. Monday, March 25

Shuttle Bus Service from Tompkinsville SIR Station

Travelers are urged to allow some extra travel time that weekend.

SIR service will be returned to normal schedule prior to Monday morning's rush hour.

Patrick Jordan is available to provide information about the project at 347-443-2220 or via email at ferryrampsliaison@gmail.com.
