2:45pm - 4:25 pm
Library (1L) - Room 103

Celebrate Women's History Month with the screening of the film "Shooting Women" by Alexis Krasilovsky, featuring more than 50 camera women from around the world. The film celebrates the talent and unflinching spirit of image-making women from the sets of Hollywood and Bollywood to the war zones of Afghanistan. The film offers insights from top directors while broaching persistent issues of the glass ceiling, sexual harassment, and childcare. From China to Senegal, join us for a glimpse of how women behind the camera are changing the world!

A Pluralism and Diversity Program sponsored by the Bertha Harris Women's Center, and the Division of Student Affairs.
