

SPANISH OPEN HOUSE

APRIL 10, 2:30-4:20 PM, 2S-114

Refreshments and desserts from different Spanish-speaking countries will be served

Sponsored by the Department of World Languages and Literatures

Spanish Open House is an informal gathering of Spanish faculty and students with representatives from the Spanish Club. All interested students are welcome to come and meet professors and fellow students to learn more about the department, its special events and resources, and the Spanish courses offered in the summer and fall semesters, to get information about Minors and Majors, as well as to find out about Study Abroad opportunities.

Please come join us!