The Department of Media Culture Presents:

JEREMY PIKSER

Award-Winning Screenwriter and
Vice President of the Writer's Guild of America East

Free to all members of the campus community.

CO-CURRICULAR (CC) CLUE EVENT

The campus community is invited to a special screening of Bulworth, followed by a Q&A session with the film's co-writer, Jeremy Pikser.

Jeremy Pikser won the LA Critics Award for his work on Bulworth, as well as Oscar, Golden Globe and Writer's Guild nominations for best screenplay.

He has recently completed a screenplay about radical lawyer William Kunstler with Walter Bernstein, and a comedy, Me 2, with Mark Leyner. He was a writer on the web series Farmed and Dangerous, a satire about industrial agriculture on Hulu this year.

Currently Vice-president of the Writer's Guild of America East, he has also advised at screenwriting labs in the UK, France, Italy, Brazil, Jordan, Ecuador, and Turkey.
