

COLLEGE OF STATEN ISLAND

SCHWERNER WRITER'S SERIES

presents

Nikkole Salter

Wednesday, December 2nd , 10:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. in the Library Archive Room
1L-216

Nikkole Salter is an Obie award winning actress and playwright. She has written 6 full-length plays, been commissioned for full-length work by 6 institutions, been produced on 3 continents in 5 countries, and been published in 12 international publications. In the 2014-15 Season of Salter, she negotiated 4 premiere productions of 4 of her works: "Lines in the Dust" received its world premiere at Luna Stage, in West Orange, NJ, "Carnaval" received its NYC premiere at Barbara Ann Teer's National Black Theatre in Harlem, "Repairing a Nation" received a NJ premiere production at Crossroads Theatre Company in New Brunswick, NJ, and the co-authored "Freedom Rider" received its world premiere at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. Ms. Salter is a 2014 MAP Fund Grant recipient, a Eugene O'Neill Theater Center National Playwrights Conference semi-finalist, a two time Playwrights of New York (PoNY) Fellowship nominee, and is currently working on commissions from Woolly Mammoth, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She was recently selected to write the screen adaptation of Claude Brown's New York Times Bestselling novel, "Manchild in the Promised Land."