

Count Me In: Ableism in LGBTQ+ Spaces

LGBTQ+ Resource Center

Tues. Sept. 13, 2016

2:30pm - 4:30pm

2N-110

Ableism is one of the -isms that tend to be ignored when discussing activism work. In this workshop, Mickey Valentine Thomas will use their personal experiences as well the art of dialogue to have an open discussion about ableism and to allow folks to unpack normalized, but not okay behaviors they have perpetuated in safer spaces.

Some of the terms that will be discussed will be: ableism, disability, and microaggressions. Activities that will be done will involve walking in the facilitator's shoes in an activity as well as having open discussions in the space.

Partnering
Department:
Center for Student
Accessibility

For more information about LGBTQ Resource Center events call 718-982-3091.

Email: Jeremiah.Jurkiewicz@csi.cuny.edu. Visit us in 1C-225