

Public Lecture On Opiate Addiction on Staten Island...

...SAVE THE DATE

Friday, October 21, 2016 @ 12:30PM

Opiates: Not a Toy, a Deadly Game...Is It Controllable and What Is Your Role?

The current epidemic of opiate addiction on Staten Island will be described and its possible approaches to address the situation will be presented. There will be an opportunity for the audience to ask questions.

Luke Nasta, Executive Director,
Camelot of Staten Island

LOCATION: Center for Performing Arts
Building 1P-120-The Recital Hall
College of Staten Island

This lecture is sponsored by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology and is open to all members of the College community and public.

For further information contact: Dr. David Goode,
Department of Sociology and Anthropology 718-982-3757