HR HIGHLIGHTS - JUST IN CASE YOU MISSED IT ...

BENEFITS FAIR

On October 5, 2016 Human Resources held the 6th annual Employee Benefits Fair in 1P, Center for the Arts.

Over 20 participants joined us including Teachers Retirement System (TRS), TIAA, Metlife, NYS Deferred Compensation plan, Social Security Administration, MCU, and ESCAPE smoking cessation program just to name a few. This year we partnered with WorkWell NYC, an initiative from the Mayor's Office of Labor Relations to administer the free flu vaccination. A registered nurse from Affiliated Physicians administered over 120 flu shots for ALL employees for free regardless of insurance provider.

In addition, breakout seminars were held throughout the day to provide information regarding the CUNY Contribution Retirement Plan's upcoming changes effective in January 2017. Thank you to all our employees who came out and joined us at the fair!

CUNY Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Upcoming Changes

Effective January 2017, TIAA will become the sole record-keeper of the Tax Deferred Annuity (TDA) Plan and will replace MetLife and Halliday Financial for future TDA Plan contributions. TIAA financial consultants were on campus during the Online Open Enrollment period (September 26-November 15) conducting information sessions and on site at the information desk in 1A-lobby. Over 100 employees enrolled online making CSI the CUNY winner for online enrollment!

New Faculty HR/Benefits Orientation

On August 22, 2016 Human Resources held the annual New Faculty Benefits Orientation for 21 newly hired full time faculty. The morning session consisted of a review of benefit entitlements including health insurance and retirement plan options. Representatives from the Professional Staff Congress (PSC), TIAA, as well as Human Resources were available to answer questions. The afternoon session covered a comprehensive review of CUNY policies.

HR HIGHLIGHTS - JUST IN CASE YOU MISSED IT...

Lunch and Learn Sessions

Human Resources kicked off the Spring season with two lunch and learn sessions Women and Banking and Eating Your Way to Wellness. Representatives from McGraw-Hill Federal Credit discussed the role of women and their finances and how to succeed in 2016. CUNY's Deer Oaks EAP, focused on the USDA Food Plate with tips and resources on how to eat your way to better and long lasting health.

Please email Human Resources at Humanresources@csi.cuny.edu if you have a topic you would like to see presented at a Lunch and Learn.

In October, Human Resources teamed up with Neila Green, Director of Adult Education in the Office of Student and Enrollment Services, and Winsome Alston, Academic Testing Coordinator from the Office of College Testing, to present a Lunch & Learn informational session to employees interested in returning to school at the College.

In November, Human Resources and Neila Green collaborated with Alana Gaymon Javois, Academic Program Specialist in the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, and Sasha Spence, Associate Director for Graduate Recruitment and Admissions, to present a Lunch & Learn informational session to staff who were interested in pursuing a Master's Degree specifically in Humanities or Social Sciences. These Lunch & Learn Sessions were found to be highly informative by the attendees and resulted in at least three employees applying for admission to Graduate School! We would like to extend our congratulations to those employees and offer our best wishes for their continued success!

PROFESSONIAL DEVELOPMENT TRAINING

In the summer of 2016, Human Resources offered three in house professional development opportunities to an array of staff. These workshops were entitled "Strengthening Workplace Communication," "Emotional Intelligence: The Key to Effective Leadership" and "Strategic Thinking." All three workshops, as well as the facilitators, were well received by the participants. Human Resources also collaborated with Robert Wilson, Director of Public Safety, to present a live interactive training and informational session for all classified staff in Buildings & Grounds concerning Workplace Violence Prevention and Emergency Guidelines and Procedures for Active Shooter Situations.
