LGBTQ History Month is a month-long annual observance of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender history, and the history of the gay rights and related civil rights movements. It is celebrated in October to coincide with National Coming Out Day on October 11 and was first celebrated in 1994.

Join us as we explore some of our community's amazing history through film. CSI faculty will join us for a talkback after the films. This film festival is brought to you by the Office of Student Life – LGBTQ Resource Center, Department of the Library, Department of Media Culture, and Campus Activities Board in partnership with Pluralism & Diversity, Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, the Women's Center, the Department of Performing and Creative Arts, and the Department of History.
