

College of Staten Island celebrates

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Please join us at these events throughout February!

Celebrating Black History: an exhibit at the CSI Library

Throughout February
Gallery, Library Rotunda

Library Theatre Movie Series

2:30-4:30 PM (Club Hours)

1L-103 (The Library Theater)

PG CLUE

The Hate You Give - Tuesday, Feb. 5

BlackKkKlansman - Tuesday, Feb. 19

The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks - Tuesday, Feb. 26

Documentary series: Black France

Prof. Fatoumata Seck (World Languages and Literature)

Thursdays, February 7, 14, & 21 (3 part film series)

2:30-4:30 PM (Club Hours)

1L-103 (The Library Theater)

CC CLUE

Author Darnell L. Moore reads from his memoir No Ashes in the Fire

LGBTQ Resource Center/Pluralism & Diversity, English,
Dean of Humanities, WGSS, CSI's Women's Center

Thursday, February 7, 6:30-8:30 PM

1C-Green Dolphin Lounge

PG & CC CLUE

Nelly's Echo

Nelly's Echo (as seen on The Voice, Season 3) music is filled with messages of positivity, life, hope and love, which stem from lessons learned from his childhood in Africa and everyday experiences.

Campus Activities Board

Thursday, February 14, 3-4 PM

1C-Green Dolphin Lounge

PG CLUE

3rd Annual Fresh Off the Boat African Cultural Show

United African Students in the USA

Friday, February 15, 7-10 PM

1P-Concert Hall

Capoeira Workshop

Capoeira is a Brazilian martial art created over 500 years ago. Come to this workshop to learn the basics of this martial art, which combines elements of dance, acrobatics, music, and fighting!

Profs. Natalie Kimball and Rafael de la Dehesa

Tuesday, February 19, 2:30-4:30 PM (Club Hours)

1P-218

PG CLUE

"Feeling Some Type of Way": The Revolutionary Politics of "Ratchet" Reality Television

Prof. Racquel Gates (Media Culture)

Tuesday, February 26, 2:30-4:30 PM (Club Hours)

1L-203 (Faculty Center)

CC CLUE

Haiti and the Dominican Republic: Race, Border and Citizenship

Profs. Seck & Baquero-Pecino

Wednesday, February 27, 4:40-6:20 PM

2S-215

CC CLUE

Race, Class, and School Desegregation in New York City

Matt Gonzales (Appleseed Foundation), Hailey Potter (Century Foundation), and Michael Paris (CSI Pol. Science and Global Affairs)

Thursday, February 28, 2:30-4:00 PM (Club Hours)

1P-223 (Screening Room)

CC CLUE

Artistic Celebration

An afternoon of celebration to honor our rich African and African Diaspora artistic heritage. This event will feature artistic expressions in the forms of music, song, dance, spoken word, photography, and drawings.

English Department Funded by Campus Activities Board

Thursday, February 28, 2:30-4:30 PM (Club Hours)

1C-Green Dolphin Lounge

PG CLUE

Ice-T: Overcoming the Impossible

As an actor, Ice-T is perhaps best known as Detective Finn in NBC's Law & Order: Special Victims Unit. In drawing upon his own personal experiences, he highlights the advantages that college students already have. "Overcoming the Impossible" is dialogue that is uplifting, inspiring, witty, and authentic.

Center for the Arts

Friday, March 8, 8 PM

1P-Springer Concert Hall

Admission: $40/$35

718.982.2787

PG CLUE

cfashows.com

For more information contact the
Pluralism & Diversity Coordinator
Jeremiah.Jurkiewicz@csi.cuny.edu
718-982-3091