

VIRTUAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM IN COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE

Preparing New York City Students for a Future Career in the Real Estate Industry

Together, the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), the City University of New York (CUNY) and Project Destined are launching a paid, 8-week Virtual Internship Program in Commercial Real Estate for diverse, CUNY undergraduate students.

PROGRAM DATES

Monday, October 5 — Thursday, December 3, 2020

INTERNSHIP DETAILS

Project Destined, a nationwide social impact nonprofit program that has deep experience in teaching underserved youth the fundamentals of commercial real estate, will administer the 8-week long internship. As part of the program, interns will work 6 hours per week focusing on real estate training, participating in a weekly Executive Speaker Series and preparing materials for a “Shark Tank” style pitch competition where teams of interns present a real estate deal to industry leaders.

The real estate industry is a key driver of New York City’s economy and offers dynamic career opportunities in deal-making, new office development, business operations and more.

COMPENSATION

For their participation in the program, students will receive $750.

REQUIREMENTS

- 4 hours per week attending virtual instruction. Interns will be placed in one of the following sessions:
 - Monday and Wednesday, 5 - 7 p.m.
 - Tuesday and Thursday, 5 - 7 p.m.
- 2 hours per week of independent learning
- Mandatory participation in Zoom meetings
- Must have access to a computer and high-speed internet

QUALIFICATIONS
