

OER CRASH COURSE FOR FACULTY

4 week asynchronous course to learn the basics and fundamentals of OER

Takes place entirely via library website

Participants who complete the course and successfully submit all deliverables by May 1 will receive a $1,000 stipend as part of the CUNY OER Initiative Grant

By the end of this course, participants will:

- Define and identify Open Educational Resources (OER)
- Differentiate between the various Creative Commons open licenses
- Locate and evaluate OER to use in their courses
- Adapt and remix OER
- Identify online platforms for original OER creation or publication
- Submit an original OER (revision or brand new resource) to CUNY Academic Works
