Winter Break Tips to Get Ahead

Taking advantage of your college's winter break is an excellent way to get a head start on your internship and job search for the upcoming year.

- Revamp Your Application Documents - Update Your Resume: Add your latest accomplishments from the past semester, including new coursework, club leadership roles, academic projects, or volunteer work. Draft a cover letter template.
- Utilize Your Career Services (Even Remotely!) - This is the perfect time to access the expertise of CSI's Center for Career & Professional Development. Schedule an upcoming appointment.
- Optimize Your Handshake Profile - Make sure your profile is 100% complete. This includes your education, work experience, organizations, projects, and a professional photo. Don't forget to follow employers and collections. Login with your cix email and SLAS password here
- Network - Take advantage of the holiday season when many professionals may have more flexible schedules. Use LinkedIn to identify CUNY alumni and connect with other professionals.
